

Input Language :English

Subject: Cultural Studies_2013 pattern_MA_40697

Item Text	Option Text 1	Option Text 2	Option Text 3	Option Text 4
Which one among the following is NOT a general category in the definition of culture according to Raymond Williams?	Ideal	documentary	social	ideological
Read the following statements and chose the correct answer a) Raymond Williams offered the 'social' definition of culture. b) Social culture is a description of a particular way of life. c) Social culture studies evolution of human societies. d) It is necessary to study social culture for all anthropologists.	Only a) Is correct	Both a) & b) are incorrect	Both a) & b) are correct	Only d) is correct
Raymond Williams refers to _____ as 'structure of feeling.'	norms	psyche	values	temperament
Cultural analyses want a common culture not a ____ culture.	discursive	ideological	hierarchical	paradoxical
The cultural tradition is not only a selection but also an ____.	interpretation	analysis	evaluation	explanation
According to Raymond Williams, in the analysis of particular works or institutions, a key-word is _____.	Pattern	Relationships	Contexts	Design
Who were the founding fathers of The Birmingham School of Cultural Studies along with Stuart Hall?	Richard Hoggart and Raymond Williams	Roland Barthes and Umberto Eco.	Michel Foucault and Louis Althusser	Henry James and Paddy Whannel
Stuart Hall states that although cultural studies as a project is _____, it can't be simply pluralist in that way.	multidisciplinary	open-ended	spatial-temporal	hybrid
Statement: Cultural Studies grew out of the New Left's original quarrel with Marxism.	This statement by Stuart Hall is his prejudiced opinion.	This statement by Stuart Hall is his observation based on imagination.	This statement by Stuart Hall is based on scientific event.	This statement by Stuart Hall is his factual observation

According to Appadurai, which of these is not seen as a possibility by nation states to exploit the apprehensions related to the many forces of homogenization?	the nation state's own hegemonic strategies	commoditization	capitalism	Americanization
Which of the states given below reflects in Appudari's opinion, a radical disjuncture between 'ideoscapes' and 'ethnoscapes', in other words a scenario where diasporic, local and translocal filiations are suicidally at battle?	Mexico	Beirut	Brazil	India
Which of the states given below reflects in Appudari's opinion a radical disjuncture between 'ideoscapes' and 'mediascapes', as in a scenario where the lifestyle represented on both national and international television and cinema is completely different from the rhetoric of national politics and and ends up both overwhelming and undermining politics?	Mexico	Beirut	Brazil	India
..... is a central vehicle of consent in a technocratic democracy.	The authority of culture	The authority of law	The authority of science	The authority of military
Universities and corporations already hold private patents on all sorts of genetic material under a project called-	ENCODE	Human Genome Project	Human Science Project	Humanities
Which of the following is not one of the key ideas posited by Butler in the essay, "Subjects of Sex/Gender/Desire"?	Gender and sex are constructs.	All women are not feminists.	Heterosexuality is normative and preordained.	Heterosexuality is normative and preordained.
Feminist theorizing has been criticised in recent times because	it tends to lay emphasis on highly Western notions of oppression.	it tends to underscore the oppression of women of the 'Third World'.	it tends to encompass the oppression of transgenders and lesbians.	it tends to encompass the oppression of transgenders and lesbians.
Which of these statements does not reflect the Butlerian view of gender-sex relation?	Gender is the cultural meaning the sexed body assumes.	Gender is the causal result of sex.	Gender does not follow from a sex in any one particular way.	Gender does not follow from a sex in any one particular way.

When Butler argues in her essay that identities are actually formed under regimenting conditions created by social prescriptions and legal regulations which in turn make freedom 'meaningful and desirable', she is reiterating the ideas of	Sigmund Freud	Michel Foucault	Julia Kristeva	Julia Kristeva
The necessity of a fully developed language for the adequate and full representation of women to enable their political visibility is a concern for feminist theory because	the pervasive cultural conditions led to an overrepresentation of women's lives.	the pervasive cultural conditions led to a politically engineered representation of women's lives.	the prevailing political conditions led to an overrepresentation of women's lives.	the prevailing political conditions led to an overrepresentation of women's lives.
What task should 'a feminist genealogy of the category of women' undertake?	The continued reification of 'women' as the subject of feminism.	Revisiting relations of domination and exclusion in the process of subject formation.	Excluding those who fail to fit into the prescriptive category of the subject 'women'.	Excluding those who fail to fit into the prescriptive category of the subject 'women'.